

You won't panic in any situation with the skills to provide CPR

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to perform cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) in line with the Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) Guidelines. This unit applies to all workers who may be required to provide CPR, in a range of situations, including community and workplace settings.

PREREQUISITES AND ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

There are no formal entry requirements for this unit.

COURSE DELIVERY

Gold Training delivers flexible training with instructors who have extensive industry experience. This unit of competency is offered face to face with a practical component. This unit is delivered throughout regional and remote Australia over one day, however, course duration is subject to change and is dependent on trainee skill level.

Participants may complete the theory component of this unit of competency online, in anticipation of completing the practical component in class with our trainers.

UNIQUE STUDENT IDENTIFIER (USI)

From 1 January 2015, participants undertaking nationally recognised training require a USI before they can receive their training records and results. Once a USI is created participants will continue to use their USI for any future nationally recognised training they undertake.

Your USI links to an online account that contains all of your training records and results that you have completed after 1 January 2015.

If you would like to create your own USI prior to commencing training with Gold Training please visit www.usi.gov.au. Alternatively, with your permission (which can be provided when completing your enrolment form) Gold Training will create your USI number on your behalf.
